The Class of 1981 leaves East Windsor High School with the memories of many good times.

We would like to dedicate this yearbook to the people who helped make those times worth remembering.

Mr. Harrigan, Ms. Modeen, Mrs. Dwyer, and Mr. Morton — you are these people. We have looked up to you, depended upon you, and shared much with you during our four years here at EWHS. With your support and guidance, you have made us better people. For this, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

we must carry it with us or we find it not.

CLASS MOTTO

Be grateful for life; for with every sunrise comes a new beginning. Rochelle Noel

CLASS SONG

All my life's a circle, Sunrise and sundown. The moon rose through the nighttime, Til the daybreak comes around.

All my life's a circle, But I can't tell you why. Seasons spinnin' 'round again, The years keep rollin' by.

It seems like I've been here before. I can't remember when, but yes I can. I got this funny feelin', That we'll all be together again.

There's no straight lines make up my life, And all the roads have bends. There's no clear cut beginnin's, And so far from dead ends.

> I found you a thousand times, I guess you've done the same. But then we lose each other, It's just like a children's game.

As I find you here again, The thought runs through my mind. Our love is like a circle, Let's go around, one more time.

(Chorus)

CLASS HISTORY

It was September of 1977 when we, the class of 1981, decided to embark on a four year safari in the East Windsor Jungle. We selected four people to organize the trip: Sandi Dupuis, Cheryl Kessler, Corinne Crockett and Debby Schweitzer. We also hired two experienced guides, Michael Harrigan and Maggie Modeen.

We set out on our journey, soon stumbling upon a tribe of natives and their chiefs Philip Morton and Salvatore Saitta.

The natives invited us to participate in their Annual War Call contest, so, apprehensive but willing, we entered and placed third.

We decided to use the tribal grounds as our main camp during our safari. Our first year passed quickly, and we soon burned our way to the top in our second War-Call Contest.

Pleased with our efforts, Chief Morton gave us a Junior Warrior privilege and let us hold a Ring Celebration, where we received our personalized Nose Rings.

Our new leaders, Marek Ryniejski, Sandi Dupuis, Rochelle Noel, and Cheryl Kessler organized a huge coconut candy sale, which took in many gold coins for future tribal events.

We became very excited as our third year began. We were now Junior Warriors, and displayed our ability to possess the key to success by placing first in the War Call Contest. Our leaders Sandi Dupuis, Marek Ryniejski, Anne Scheinblum, and Cheryl Kessler organized a lavish Junior Warrior Banquet, where we all learned new tribal dances.

Our final year marked our advancement to Senior Warriors, led by Marek Ryniejski, Rochelle Noel, Anne Scheinblum, and Tracey Tschummi. We also acquired a new guide, Donna Dwyer. We placed second in the War Call Contest, but cheered up with our Senior Warrior Banquet in the Tribal Hall.

Our last year in safari passed quickly and happily. We were sad to leave our native friends, but realized that the future could hold many more challenging adventures. We were sure that the memories of this special safari would live forever.
